

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

What does the title tell you about the book?

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Make a list of subject specific vocabulary from the text and provide meanings. Re-read the sentences the words are in to help you.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

How do the features of the text help you understand it?

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

List two questions you have about this topic after reading this text and how you can research the answers.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Write two opinions you have about the topic of this text.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Choose one of the scientists who study how animals behave and create a fact file on their studies.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Do you think the title of the book suits the content?
If not, what would you have called it?

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Find ten words you didn't know before you read this book. Are they in the glossary? Find their meaning and write them down.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Write five questions you could ask someone to find out if they have read this book.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Write down five interesting facts you have learnt from reading this book.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Which species in the book would you most like to learn more about and why?
What could you do to learn more about them?

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

How many sub-categories are there in the intelligence section of the book?

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Which text features has the author used to organise this text? Give examples of these features.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

What other genres could have been used to write about this topic?

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

What is the main idea of this text?

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

How and where do you think the author researched the information for this book? List as many as you can.

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

How do the illustrations in the book support the text?

Non-fiction guided reading card - Humanimal

Is there a contents page in this book? If there is list three sub-topics and their page numbers.